

OVERCOMING TERROR TOGETHER

Our goal is to rehabilitate and empower victims of terror, wounded soldiers, and bereaved families, so they can achieve their emotional and financial independence, and successfully reintegrate into society.

We are ONE unique FAMILY of professionals, volunteers, donors, and the VICTIMS and SURVIVORS of terror attacks in Israel since 2000—bereaved, maimed, and traumatized—who suffer from physical pain and trauma.

WHEN TERROR STRIKES—WE ACT

IMMEDIATE RESPONSE: Following a terror attack, OneFamily rushes to meet the urgent physical and emotional needs of the victims and their families.

CONTINUED SUPPORT: We provide a comprehensive blend of therapeutic programs, and financial, legal, and medical assistance, tailor-made for each family member, and delivered in our hallmark “family” atmosphere of trust and togetherness.

ONGOING REHABILITATION FOR PTSD: We offer an array of therapeutic programs designed for orphans, bereaved parents and siblings, widows and widowers, and the wounded themselves.

ADVOCACY: OneFamily advocates for and assists victims in accessing entitlements from government and official sources.

OneFamily is
THE premier national organization that REHABILITATES
the lives of Israel's VICTIMS OF TERROR.

They Need OneFamily
and OneFamily
Needs YOU!

OneFamily camps for children who have lost parents due to acts of terror, create a special environment where they bond with others who have suffered similar losses. The friendships formed create lifelong support systems.

Bereaved mothers participating in a OneFamily-sponsored retreat.

Although nothing could ever eliminate the pain suffered from the loss of a child, OneFamily is dedicated to trying to ease the pain of bereaved parents.

OneFamily sponsors many therapeutic workshops and emotional support groups for parents mourning a child, including: Bereaved Mothers' Cooking Classes, Bereaved Fathers' Choir, Wounded Couples Group, and Couples Therapy and Support.

We found that a change of scenery and a change of pace—with other parents who understand their pain—can be extremely therapeutic.

To help, we organize special healing retreats for parents, and provide personalized encouragement from staff and trained volunteers, legal advice, and financial support when needed.

OneFamily visited every soldier and civilian wounded during Operation Protective Edge, bringing comfort and cheer.

During Operation Protective Edge, OneFamily staff and volunteers attended funerals and visited each shiva house. We looked after surviving children and filled refrigerators for victims too distraught to leave their homes.

We sent hundreds of families from southern Israel to retreats in the north for a few days of respite from the relentless missile attacks.

Our volunteers assembled and delivered care packages, helped fix and rebuild homes that were hit by missiles, and ran household errands for victims who were too overwhelmed to perform simple tasks.

We visited every wounded soldier and civilian in the hospital . . . more than 463 . . . and continue to visit those who remain hospitalized.

OneFamily does whatever we can to comfort the wounded and the bereaved.

In 2011, Palestinian terrorists entered the home of Ruth and Udi Fogel, murdering them and three of their six children.

Ruth's parents, Tali and Yehuda BenYishai, adopted their surviving grandchildren, and during these darkest moments, OneFamily entered their lives. We would not let them face their ordeal alone.

We helped and continue to help the family cope with their grief. Our counselors developed warm relationships with the children, who are also attending OneFamily camps. And Tali joined our Bereaved Mothers Support Group. "We cannot thank OneFamily enough for their ongoing love, help, and support." said Tali.

The Fogel/BenYishai families are two of thousands OneFamily is helping, extending our support for as long as they need it.
